ON THE ROAD To The Title

Round 12 Preview

Central Coast v Macarthur Rams

After a dismal run of form the last team the Coasties need to be playing are Macarthur. A promising start to the season has been wasted by Central Coast, and with Eastern Suburbs winning two of their last three games it is time for the Coasties to start picking up some points.

The bright spots in their season so far has been the form of young defender Aron Binskin, while striker Nathan Byrn has fully justified his second - and probably last - chance given to him by the club after leaving last year.

Macarthur on the other hand are a team that look at strong as last year, but with a nucleus of a team that has been together for another year. Defensively sound with the likes of John Crawley, Dion Valle and Richard Lloyd, the Rams are sharing the goals between them. Add to that the midfield work of Martin Bourke and you have a team effort that will have the Rams up there with Blacktown and Bonnyrigg at the end of the season - with Fairfield there as well to do more than merely make up the numbers.

Super Soccer tip - Macarthur Rams

Bankstown City Lions v Bonnyrigg White Eagles

The clash of the round at Jensen Park sees the inconsistent Bankstown City Lions take on Bonnyrigg White Eagles. The Lions still have a temporary player coach in Mile Todoroski, and their shock 2-0 home defeat by Ryde last week will not have helped. Despite that their fans will need no reminding of what happened in the reverse fixture in Round One - Bankstown smashed the White Eagles 5-2 with Zoki Adioski grabbing 4.

George Issa has stepped up from the U21's to join brother Robert, and George has already scored five goals, after Alex Trposki was incorrectly credited with Bankstown's second against Leichhardt.

Bonnyrigg are in great form. A slightly inconsistent start left people wondering if they would be able to repeat last year's first place, but their 100% record since a 4-2 defeat at Blacktown has seen strikers Robert Gomez and Colin Luff flourish.

One of Super League's best midfielders in Paul Richardson helps, although White Eagles fans dread the sight of the Super Soccer cameras. After being featured three times so far this season their record reads played three lost three...and we'll be at Jensen Park on Saturday I'm afraid!

Super Soccer tip - Bonnyrigg White Eagles

Fairfield Bulls v Ryde City

Although disappointed to lose their unbeaten home record last week to the Leichhardt Tigers, Bulls coach Joe Watson wasn't too down-heartened. A start beyond the wildest dreams of the Bulls fans has been fully deserved, with strikers Mark Hoenselaars and Matthew Borg grabbing the headlines. An under-rated midfield duo of Jason Falzon and Paul Bourke does no harm to the team and defensive players like Martin Drienne and George Zabetakis help the reliable goalkeeper Dragon Pupovac.

Ryde have already proved this season they are no easy-beats, but apart from two Scott Ollerenshaw braces they are struggling to score goals.

Last week's surprise 2-0 away win at Bankstwon will help the team no end, and in the vocal Les Bihari the Gunners have a more than competent goalkeeper. The likes of John Koch, Craig Moffit and Craig Sharpley keep the team honest and Super Soccer can see the Gunners getting something out of this one.

Super Soccer tip - Draw

Parramatta Eagles v Leichhardt Tigers

Parramatta look a solid outfit this year, but their goals for tally is misleading. 11 goals in two games against teams at the bottom doesn't show that the Eagles have struggled to score goals against teams at the top, a point acknowledged by coach Roberto Viera.

Goalkeeper Jason Holmes and big defenders Paul O'Grady and Mark Revely will keep most teams out, but the Eagles look to miss a striker who can score goals and play off Grant Bard. In midfield Saso Boskovski gets through a mountain of work, and his contribution should not be unrecognised.

Leichhardt were having a season that didn't suggest they could go to Fairfield and beat the Bulls, but in keeping with some strange results all year in Super League they did. Coach Arno Bertogna will be hoping that is the kick start his team needs, and if it is they could be hitting form at the right time of the season. Few teams still relish a game with the Tigers, and apart from Chris Lansdown, the Tigers goalkeeper Frank Mikuletic is top-draw.

Hopefully Sarkis Boudaher can get among the goals after scoring against Fairfield, while Anthony Tesoro and Eric Hristodoulou let little past. This will be a tight game but if the Tigers could grab a win their season suddenly becomes alive.

Super Soccer tip - A draw

Eastern Suburbs v Blacktown City Demons

Two wins out of three means what could have been a disastrous season for new coach John Calleja now starts to take on some extra promise. After a nightmare start of struggling to score then conceding more goals each week, a shock 3-1 win over Canterbury Marrickville gave the Wanderers their first win of the season. It should have been two out of two against Sutherland but two late goals meant Eastern Suburbs came home empty handed, but bounced back to defeat fellow strugglers Central Coast 2-0.

A steady team of few stars, young striker Manny Mitakidis has stood out with his pace, while players such as Stevie Lawrence and Peter Pullicino have done all they can.

Blacktown are on song, scoring goals and picking up the points. No Stuart Cleary on Sunday meant a strike force of Jon Angelucci, Jason Bennett and Damien Brown, which most Super League coaches would be happy with!

After the turmoil just days before the season started in losing coach Alex Robertson new coach Brian 'Bomber" Brown has got the team playing well and looking once again likely to justify their tag as one of the contenders for the championship. One player who rarely gets a mention is the consistent goalkeeper Fernando Greco, who along with Damien Foxe and Matthew Lowe form a mean rear-guard.

Super Soccer tip - Blacktown City Demons

Sutherland Sharks v Canterbury Marrickville

Sutherland need to get a win here over a team who beat Macarthur a week after losing to Eastern Suburbs, once again empathising the closeness of this competition. Coach John Lavin has unearthed some promising young players but knows that like all youngsters they will not perform every week, and unfortunately his team are not in a position where they can afford to throw points away.

Goalkeeper Dennis Olla performed heroics against Macarthur last week and Scot Levi Stephen will hopefully be back on board after not being able to train last week. With Eastern Suburbs picking up points the Sharks will look for at least a point here.

Canterbury Marrickville are another team who have been inconsistent so far, although on their day they are too good for most teams. Unfortunately there season has not yet really kicked off, and they need a couple of wins on the trot to get some momentum. Zoran Ilic has come in and performed admirably, while in defence Terry Palpanis and goalkeeper Steve Tolios are tough to get past. The Berries need Jim Nikas to start knocking some goals in though, as last seasons star striker hasn't scored since round three. This will be a tough game and a tough game to call, but both teams should get something out of this.

Super Soccer tip - A Draw.

Parramatta's Jason Holmes gathers despite the attempts of Aaron Holst.

Round 11 marked the halfway point of the regular season, and as usual, Super Soccer was there to bring you all the very best action.

Blacktown City Demons 2 Parramatta Eagles 0

Mark Fowler was at Gabbie Stadium

"If you don't score goals, you don't win soccer matches."

So said Parramatta Coach Roberto Viera after seeing his side lose 2-0 to in-form Blacktown.

Although the Demons just about deserved their win, a point conceded by Viera, the Eagles could have made it much closer by putting away some more than presentable chances when the score was still 0-0.

As it was, goals to the dangerous Jason Bennett after 38 minutes, and a penalty just five minutes later by Jon Angelucci, sees Blacktown join Bonnyrigg and Macarthur at the top, all on 22 points, after Fairfield's surprise home defeat to Leichhardt.

Parramatta's first effort on goal came after 12 minutes, Anthony Mittiga showing great skill to dribble his way through the penalty area before firing a shot goalwards. Blacktown custodian Fernando Greco was equal to the task though, pushing the ball over the crossbar. Two minutes later Alex Araujo also forced Greco into a save, after Blacktown's Damien Foxe hesitated in his own penalty area.

Their best chance though came after 29 minutes. Grant Bard did superbly well in beating his defender before cutting the ball back for Maurico Islas.

Although the ball came slightly behind him Islas could have done better than chip the ball over the bar with the goal gaping.

Blacktown's two goals in five minutes always meant it was going to be hard for Parramatta, and on the hour mark Jason Bennett was found well by Steve Riches, although Jason Holmes in Parramatta's goal was equal to Bennett's shot.

Chances in the second period were few and far between, although Angelucci was a whisker away from making it 3-0. Great work on the left flank by Chris Bradley saw Angeluuci get in front of his marker but unable to direct the ball on target.

As the game wore on Blacktown were down to 10 men for a short period of time, Paul Yates, a substitute for Steve Riches after 67 minutes, took a knock to the head that saw blood running down his face. While he carried on for a short while he was himself substituted with just 7 minutes to go by Josh Jackett.

Parramatta created a couple of good chances at the end, but that they went begging summed up their day. Ahmed Elrich, a quality player on the right hand flank for Parramatta, could only fire straight at Greco, while deep in injury time Panzarino's shot took a slight deflection when it looked goalwards.

Blacktown just about deserved this one, although with better finishing when at 0-0 it could have been a different story. The Eagles have knocked up some good scores against teams in the lower reaches of the division, but have been unable to match that against some of the heavyweights.

Blacktown again look ominous, as without firing on all cylinders in this one they still looked comfortable.

Blacktown City Demons: Greco, Lowe, Riches (Yates 67', Jackett 85'), Foxe, Bradley, Angelucci, Bennett, Smith, Brown, Holst, Sermanni

Parramatta Eagles: Holmes, Utjesenovic, O'Grady, Revely, Boskovski (G Meilak), Araujo (Anderson), Bard, A.Mittiga, Islas, Elrich, Panzarino

Goals: Blacktown City Demons: Bennett 38', Angelucci 43' pen

Best for Blacktown City Demons: Sermanni

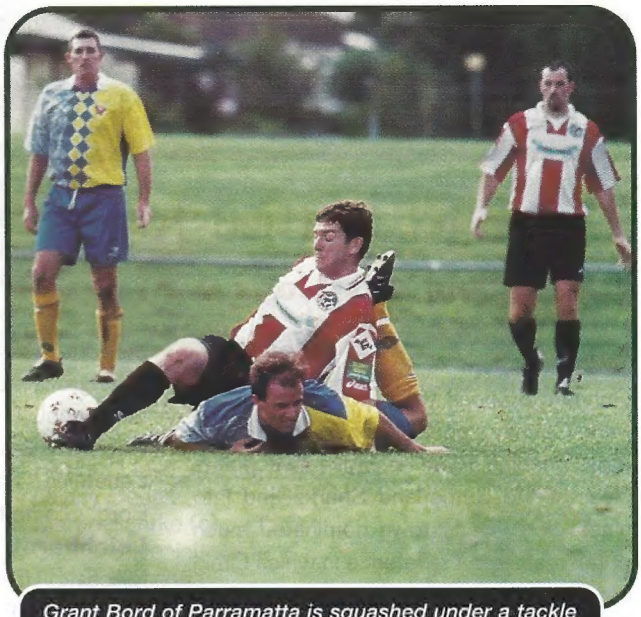
Best for Parramatta Eagles: Revely

Yellow cards: Blacktown City Demons: Bennett 36', Riches 59', Angelucci 71', Sermanni 81' Parramatta Eagles: Araujo 36', A Mittiga 46'

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 3 Canterbury Marrickville 1

Bonnyrigg continued their winning run with a 3-1 victory over Canterbury Marrickville at the Serbian Centre. Two goals from Robert Gomez and one from Colin Luff, his nineth of the season, gave the White Eagles another three points, and left Canterbury Marrickville with only a goal on the hour mark from Nick Bosevski to celebrate.

The first goal came after 14 minutes, when a Javier Mancino through ball saw the Canterbury Marrickville defenders stop, expecting an off-side against Colin Luff. Instead, Robert Gomez ran onto the free ball and chipped Steve Tolios in the Berries' goal to make it 1-0. Canterbury Marrickville had the ball in the net just two minutes later, but Bosevski's effort was ruled out for off-side.



Grant Bord of Parramatta is squashed under a tackle of Peter Sermanni.

Gomez made it 2-0 after 35 minutes after being brought down in the penalty area by Adrian Molachino. Gomez picked himself up and put the penalty away to give both him and Bonnyrigg their second. Bonnyrigg had much the better of the first half, and fully deserved their lead at the break.

Things changed in the second half though, as Canterbury Marrickville started to control the game, and they deservedly got back into it after 60 minutes.

At 2-1 it became a different game, as the Berries looked to grab an equaliser, but the resultant gaps were exploited with nine minutes to go by Luff, who in the process kept himself at the top of the Super League leading scorer chart. After rounding Tolios Luff found the net despite the great attempts by Michael Raeburn, who could only help the ball on its way.

A win here would have seen Canterbury Marrickville leapfrog Bankstown on the ladder, however as it stood Bonnyrigg joined Blacktown and Macarthur in a three way tie at the top of the table.

Bankstown City Lions 0 Ryde City 2

Two goals from Aydin Cetinay gave the Gunners a shock three points at Jensen Park. Cetinay's goals, after 74 and 86 minutes, enabled Ryde to move two points clear of the Sutherland Sharks and into nineth spot. Bansktown dominated much of the match, but a defence in which Craig Moffit once again stood out held firm. Although Bankstown were slightly below their best it looked a game for the taking, until Cetinay's first goal. It quickly got worse for Bankstown, as Nabil Codmani was sent off straight after for two yellow cards.

Cetinay's second sealed a fine victory for the Gunners, as a consumate away peformance giving them all three points will not be matched by many visitors to Jensen Park.

Fairfield Bulls 1 Leichhardt Tigers 3

Leichhardt Tigers became the first team to come away from Nineveh Field with all three points last Saturday night, winning 3-1 against a Bulls team who played most of the second half with ten men.

The Bulls were in great form going into this game against a Leichhardt Tigers team who have been difficult to predict this season, but it all came right for the Tigers from as early as the second minute.

The Bulls' Phil Treharn brought down Chris Lansdown just outside the penalty area, and team-mate Sarkis Boudaher stepped up to push the ball around the defensive wall and goalkeeper Sean Cahill, deputising for the injured Dragon Pupovac.

In the eighth minute Matthew Borg could only fire over the crossbar with just the goalkeeper to beat, and then after 32 minutes the Bulls got level.

Borg took on his markers before passing to Jeff Suzor. Suzor's first time cross was met by Mark Hoenselaars for his eighth of the season.

After 48 minutes came a decisive moment in the match, with Paul Bourke being sent off for the Bulls. The Tigers were quick to capitalise on their numerical advantage, and when after 64 minutes Boudaher's long-range effort hit the post, Mite Talcevski was on hand to make it 2-1 to the visitors.

The Tigers sealed the win just six minutes later with their third, a through ball finding Chris Lansdown who made no mistake.

Fairfield Bulls: Cahill, Grubba (Mandic) Zabetakis, Falzon (Iocca) Hoenselaars, Borg, Giometti, Treharn, Vrnkovic, Suzor
Leichhardt Tigers: Mikuletic, Tesoro, Milicevic, Hristodoulou, Savocca, James, Boudaher (Pettanon) Alexiou (Kdouh) Lansdown, Bazdaric, Talcevski

Macarthur Rams 2 Sutherland Sharks 0

Peter Smith was at Lynwood Park

Macarthur bounced back from the disappointment of losing their unbeaten home record to Canterbury Marrickville, in defeating the struggling Sutherland Sharks 2-0.

Sutherland had only won once in four visits to Lynwood Park and right from the start it didn't look promising for the Sharks, goalkeeper Dennis Olla having to deny Trevor 'Tricky" Whiddett in a one-on-one situation in the first minute. Just seven minutes later Matthew Richardson had to clear off the line for the Sharks after a goalmouth scramble, and the Sutherland defence knew they were in for a tough night.

Shane Raynor had a golden chance to open the scoring for the Rams after 28 minutes. Raynor combined superbly with Whiddett but shot wide from just 12 metres with only Olla to beat.

Macarthur were enjoying the majority of the possession although Sutherland did create a couple of chances of their own, Craig Hobbs firing over on two occasions after slipping his marker in the penalty area.

The Sharks' best chance came after a mix-up between goalkeeper John Crawley and Richard Lloyd, and gave David Tedesco, playing his first game of the season after trialing in the US, the chance to cross. Keegan Pillay picked up the loose ball but could only watch as his shot trickled agonisingly wide.

Macarthur stormed back and sent waves of attack into the Sutherland area, and scored when Raynor sent a neat ball through to Whiddett who clipped the ball over the advancing Olla.

Macarthur were always going to be tough to break down after their goal just before half-time, and after 67 minutes could have doubled their advantage.

Whiddett, enjoying his best game for a while, beat a host of defenders before crossing for Williams, who was denied by the superb Olla.

There was nothing Olla could do however as with just 6 minutes remaining, as his save from a Shane Knight thunderbolt fell kindly to substitute Iain Mcdonald, who once again came off the bench to score.

Macarthur Rams Coach Casey DeBruin was a happy man after the game, saying his team had kept possession well and with a little more composure in front of goal could have added more than the two goals they did score.

Sutherland's John Lavin was left to bemoan missing 6 first teamers for a variety of reasons, although he did single out the 18 year old Ristovski, making his first grade debut for the Sharks.

Macarthur Rams: Crawley, Valle, Lloyd, Bourke, Williams (McDonald), Reid, Whidett, Willard (O'Shea), Rastall, Knight, Rayner
Sutherland Sharks: Olla, Richardson, Markopolous, Hobbs, Mozsny (Bideau), Corbo (Riley), Pillay, Giraldo, Tolson, Ristovski (Stephen), Tedesco
Goals: Macarthur Rams: Whiddett 45' McDonald 84'
Best for Macarthur Rams: Whiddett
Best for Sutherland Sharks: Olla
Yellow cards: Macarthur Rams: Reid 35' Sutherland Sharks; Markopolous 53'
Referee: Jeff Tippett

Eastern Suburbs 2 Central Coast 0

At the bottom of the table the battle of the bottom two went the way of Eastern Suburbs. Central Coast's wretched run continued as the Wanderers scored after 34 minutes through the versatile Stevie Lawrence, and Mark Beldham sealed the victory for Eastern Suburbs with just nine minutes left.

World Youth hampionships

At the time of writing it looked as if the Young Socceroos would be making the trip home from Nigeria, unless results had gone their way and they scraped in as one of the third best placed teams.

After beating Saudi Arabia 3-1 hopes were high, but a reversal of that scoreline against Mexico left the Young Socceroos needing a result against the Republic of Ireland.

It was not to be for the Australian's however, as two of the English League's brightest stars, Blackburn's Damien Duff and Wolves' Robbie Keane teased and tormented the Young Socceroos on their way to a 4-0 victory. After taking a look last week at Brett Emerton, Super Soccer today looks at Sydney United's Joel Griffiths.

Nickname: Griffo
Age: 19
DOB: 21.8.79
Born: Sydney
Club: Sydney United
Seasons with club: 1
Position: Striker
Tournament Number: 16
Height: 178cm
Weight: 75kg
Favourite OS Player: David Beckham
Favourite OS Team: Manchester United
Most Admired Aussie (local): David Mitchell
Most Admired Aussie (OS): Harry Kewell
Biggest Achievement to date: Making the Young Socceroos squad
Ambition: To win the World Cup
Words of Advice: "Work hard and don't give up."

Q Describe the Nigerian experience for us?

A Its very different. You just have to get used to a lot of things - eating different foods, not washing your face with water, not drinking the water, brushing your teeth and only using boiled water - we'll get used to it though so its no real dilemma. The people are very friendly which is great, they're always smiling and waving at us.

Q Who is your "Tip to Watch" in this Australian Squad?

A Brett Emerton. He's been there before, in the last World Youth Cup in Malaysia, he's very reliable and very cool under pressure. Oh, and he's my room mate and sitting right next to me!

Q What does the future hold for Joel Griffiths?

A I don't really look to the future - I'm just looking to our success at the World Cup at the moment, and giving that my best shot - we'll worry about the rest of it later.

SQUAD SELECTED TO GO TO NEW CALEDONIA

As mentioned previously, the NSW Soccer Federation is sending a select squad of First Division players to face the New Caledonian national team over the Anzac weekend.

With the squad having just being named, Super Soccer's PAUL GOODWIN takes a look at the players who will be making the trip to play the New Caledonia national team on Friday April 23 and Sunday April 25.

The full squad is listed below -

Manly Warringah -
Danny Barbalace
Matthew Bastian
Dean Harding
Damian Rosenthal
Kelvin Foster

Rockdale City -
Bill Petrovski

Stanmore Hawks -
Nick Boliantis
Peter Kypreos

St George -
Trinity Allen
Simon Verrender

Penrith Panthers -
Bob Casserly
Danny Hinton
Ben Wright

Dulwich Hill -
Jerry Barros

Bathurst '75 -
Scott Mutton
Matthew Baillie
Mark Rooke

Manager - Mr Mendo Cklamovski (Rockdale City Suns)
Coach - Mr Tony Pezzano (Manly Warringah Dolphins)
Assistant - Mr John Paul de Marigny
Physio - Mr David Hughes

Player profiles

Danny Barbalace is a rugged 25 year old defender and midfield workhorse, who has been a Warringah Dolphin and now a Manly-Warringah Dolphin for some years now, but had a short spell at Sydney Olympic in 1997 and made many first team apearances.

Also a member of the Australian Futsal team which went to Brazil in 96/97,

He was in the Dolphins side that won Super League in 1995.

Matthew Bastian, just 24, has come down from Brisbane where he played in the top division there for Taringa and has been a great find this season already in the stopper's position. His studies as a chiropractor brought him to Sydney and the Dolphins are only too pleased that they did.

Dean Harding, 29, returned to the Northern Beaches club after a while away first at Blacktown, where he was a member of the 1997 Grand Final team and then at local side Brookvale where he helped the Manly-Warringah District side win the NSW Champion of Champions last season. Has scored 9 goals in the first five rounds so was an obvious candidate for selection.

Damian Rosenthal, a 28 year old sales executive, is another who hails from Queensland and is in his second season at the club where he was in the Queensland state squad in 1994. He played there for North Star and is an out and out striker who has a real nose for goal.

Kelvin Foster brought on under former coach Agenor Muniz is a very youthful and stylish defender who likes to get forward and can score goals. Still only 19 he began his soccer at the strong Ku-ring-gai District club Hornsby Heights before going on to play reps for the District at Under 14 to Under 16 and then moved into the Warringah Dolphins Under 18s where he rapidly progressed to 1st Grade.

Rockdale City -
Bill Petrovski is a huge talent and one of the bright boys of the Suns squad in the middle of the park. Originally one of their juniors, he had a spell at St George and Sydney Olympic at one stage, but as a sweeper, returning to the central midfield with his favourite club again this year.

Aged 19 he is the best prospect to emerge from the club in a long while.

Stanmore Hawks -
Nick Boliantis tall, midfielder who has a strong shot and is naturally good in the air. still learning but came to the club from Alexander Warriors where he was coached by John Sentas

Peter Kypreos, very talented youngster who plays wide and is very creative

St George -
Trinity Allen, 22, a goalkeeper who has had two spells at the NSW Institute and a year at the AIS, plus a period at Wollongong City as well as Fairfield Bulls and Sydney Olympic youth team.

Simon Verrender, 21, a St George junior who has really blossomed this year under Paul Carter and has attracted the interest of several Ericsson Cup clubs with his positive work in central midfield.

Penrith Panthers -
Bob Casserly has had much experience at Polonia, Leichhardt Tigers, Mount Druitt and Hills United before joining this club three seasons ago. He is comfortable at sweeper, but can also play in midfield and anywhere along the back four.

Danny Hinton was at Polonia, West Wanderers before linking with Penrith and is a nippy little midfield player who scores plenty of goals.

Ben Wright also ex West Wanderers and Macarthur who has been put into a stopper's position with success despite his lack of height or physique and done a fabulous job.

Dulwich Hill -
Jerry Barros, 22, converted now to a speedy attacking flanker, having previously played in midfield, has been coming along steadily for some seasons at the club where he began as a junior and where he has just signed a 2 year contract.

Bathurst '75 -
Scott Mutton, 27, very dangerous target man who snaps up half chances and gets into scoring positions intuitively. After a year at Eastern Suburbs in Super League he returned to his home town following the birth of his daughter last year and works as a printer at Charles Sturt University.

Matthew Baillie 21 year old goalkeeping prospect from the local area who is studying physical education in the area. Like his team mates Mutton and Rooke he has come through the junior ranks and the man they call 'Sticks' has also played District and Country representative soccer before this selection.

Mark Rooke 30 year old long time midfield workhorse and sometime striker who always combines well with Mutton and has been a mainstay of the side in recent years. Also a father recently, with a 16 month old son, he had trials at Ipswich Town and upon his return turned out with Sutherland, but most of his soccer has been played in Bathurst.

Manager - Mr Mendo Cklamovski (Rockdale City Suns) long time Rockdale adminstrator who has won many friends with his helpful and well informed approach to team and club management duties.

Coach - Mr Tony Pezzano (Manly Warringah Dolphins) Animated and ebulliant former Sydney City, Marconi and Apia goalkeeper who also spent time in this division as a player with Southern Districts and has done a wonderful job to harness much of the talent on the peninsula in the last two seasons.

Assistant - Mr John Paul de Marigny long time Marconi player and captain and a Socceroo defender who has done a lot of good work coaching younger players in recent seasons. As NSW Institute of Sport Womens Coach he has another important role there now, having for many years been involved in the schools development programme which he now oversees.

Physio - Mr David Hughes, working at Ryde City for many years and credited with getting Scott Ollerenshaw back on the field after previous unsuccessful treatment almost suggested the end of his playing career.

1999 SEASON

NSW FIRST DIVISION REVIEW

ROUND SIX SUMMARY... ILLAWARRA LIONS PIPPED AT THE POST MINOTAURS MAUL ST GEORGE AT HURSTVILLE OVAL

Manly-Warringah did the ultimate houdini act at Ian McLellan Park when they scored twice in the last three minutes to deny Illawarra Lions a huge upset win in front of their own vocal supporters. The South Coast side fans were on good terms with themselves after they had turned an early 1-0 lead into a 2-0 margin five minutes from the end, but a barnstorming finish by the Dolpins tempered their celebrations.

Instead, they became the first side to take a point from a game against the strong looking team from Sydney's northern beaches.

Ricky Giometti gave the Lions the lead in the 14th minute and the first half belonged to the locals who played the game with a great deal of vigour.

Manly, by contrast, looked less the side that has carried all before them this season, shots from Danny Barbalace and Adam Townsend going wide as they looked far from close to drawing level.

Roco Papalia made a sensational save seven minutes into the second half as Illawarra continued to hold the midfield, but the signs of a revival began to show as the game progressed. Dean Harding had a shot well saved for the Dolphins in the 53rd and a Barbalace header on the hour also met the same fate.

Just when it looked as though one goal would be enough, Peter Antonopoulos latched onto a cross and hit a superb volley past Papalia in the 85th to supposedly seal the match.

The home side reckoned without the fighting qualities of the Dolphins as they stormed back to get one on the scoresheet in the 87th minute.

Adam Townsend's well flighted cross from the left was headed in by Damian Rosenthal to set up a grandstand finish.

Damon Pih curled in a corner which eluded any of the Manly players but sailed over the keeper and all an Illawarra defender could do was help the ball into the net.

The 2-2 draw provided great entertainment if a little too much excitement for both sets of supporters.

The big derby at Hurstville Oval produced the shock result neutrals would have anticipated with relish, a stunning 4-2 win by the home side the Hurstville City Minotaurs over rivals from up the line, St George.

Two St George players were given their marching orders, one in each half and a Minotaurs player as well for good measure.

After a lively opening the first good chance fell to Tom Pontidas who cracked his shot against the crossbar in the 30th minute, but only five minutes later Simon Verrender was able to make a searching run into the box and then fire a well directed shot low past the keeper into the bottom corner of the net.

After a corner on the left in the dying stages of the first half taken by the Minotaurs a shot from one of their players struck Gordon Sutherland who was adjudged to have handled and penalty was awarded, Sutherland getting his marching orders shortly after being pulled up for the offence.

Michael Kladis put the spot kick past Trinity Allen and the sides returned to the sheds level once more.

Three minutes after the restart Minotaurs had grabbed the lead with Kladis able to slide a low shot past the keeper after s good cross from the right had been delivered.

It was only another eight minutes before the home side had extended their lead still further.

Eric Vassiliadis was on the end of a good move down the left and when his cross was despatched to the penalty area there was Nick Knithakis to meet it and put his side a handy 3-1 up.

St George then lost Stefan Janic in the 71st for a high tackle, but it was only another four minutes before the Saints reduced the deficit from the penalty spot, Giuseppe Serratore putting the shot away after Louis Dounis had been brought down in the box.

In arguing against the decision Peter Papouthis was sent off thus bringing the sides a little closer together, with 9 against 10 for the last half hour or so.

Hurstville wrapped up the win in the 82nd minute when Kladis got up to meet a corner from the right and that was the last real chance to settle the game once and for all, leaving St George in tatters.

Moorebank found the rejuvenated Auburn side a hot prospect at Hammondville Park, going down 2-4 to the side now coached by Henry Sobczyk.

Right from the start there were problems for Moorebank as Gurdal Ozcan's first minute cross from the right was misjudged by the keeper and reached the far top corner of the net unaided.

With that early goal behind them Auburn took no time setting about their task and had added a second within fifteen minutes.

Saffet Catovic was instrumental in laying a ball on for Huseyin Beyhan whose long range shot caught the keeper out again, a well struck goal indeed by the player who spent some time with Sydney Olympic last season.

After 19 minutes it was 3-0 as the keeper was again punished after a header by Catovic, following a free kick, had not been taken cleanly and fell at the feet of Beyhan who buried the ball in the net.

Moorebank responded then with their best player Sasha Djuric scoring a classy goal in the 23rd minute, but when the second half began it took little time for the visitors to re-assert their superiority.

Beyhan added the fourth for Auburn and completed his hat trick in the 52nd when the keeper remained on his line as a ball was played in by Catovic for Beyhan to go through and lash a volley into the top corner of the net.

St George then lost Stefan Janic in the 71st for a high tackle, but it was only another four minutes before the Saints reduced the deficit from the penalty spot, Giuseppe Serratore putting the shot away after Louis Dounis had been brought down in the box.

Haydar Arslan in the Auburn goal brilliantly saved a Peter Moon penalty late in the game before Djuric scored again for the home side with just 12 minutes remaining.

Rockdale's form seems to have deserted them again.

They had no luck again, with visiting Penrith gaining the lead through a controversial free kick around the edge of the box. Rockdale's keeper Mark Afif had been penalised for claiming the ball outside his area and Ben Wright blasted his free kick past him for the lead in the 32nd minute.

Bill Petrovski levelled for Rockdale five minutes into the second half, after Spase Najdoski had been brought down in the area, but a lapse of concentration allowed Richard Astone to restore the Panthers' lead just two minutes later.

To magnify their indignity Rockdale presented Penrith with their third by virtue of an own goal by Andrew Stubbs in the 77th minute for the 3-1 defeat, leaving Penrith as one of only three unbeaten teams so far this season.

A C United is the third side to go undefeated so far and for a long time it looked as if they might have to settle for another draw at Arlington Oval as a determined Dulwich Hill held them at bay with only ten men for the last hour of a physical encounter.

After Zlatko Momircevski had been sent off in the 32nd minute Dulwich actually began to look more dangerous One run by Nassareo Martino which took the newly signed player from deep in his own defence into the opposition penalty area ended with a shot just wide of the right post, but with this attitude the home side was primed to make life very difficult for AC United.

Most of the first half chances fell to United, but Nino Marvello in particular was unable to get clean strikes on goal after good lead up work and it was frustrating for the large band of supporters to see so many shot go wide from good positions, Sergio Batista and Gerry Sansone also failing to capitalise.

The game was very keenly contested for the remainder of the first half and continued to the same pattern until the 71st when Eddie Briscoe smacked a sweetly timed volley past Matthew Baillie to put Stanmore 2-0 up.

Dulwich threw many players forward during the second half making light of their numerical disadvantage and Phil Cacciola was always prominent, bringing out one top save from Andres Ferrero in the 52nd minute and having other chances which he could not take cleanly.

The biggest let-off was in the 61st when a Modar Sultan cross to the far post from wide on the right was met by Sasha Spiroski with a header that crashed against the angle of the upright.

Just as the supporters were resigning themselves to a scoreless draw an innocuous looking cross from the right touchline by Marvello reached the far post unclaimed and there was substitute Marcello Ortiz to head home powerfully from close range.

Dulwich almost snatched back their precious point in the last seconds when Cacciola strode through only to drive his shot inches over the bar.

It was a bitter pill for the home side to swallow after such a positive and determined show with ten men for such a long period, but for AC persistence got its own reward.

Stanmore Hawks were another side in determined form when they visited Bathurst on the Saturday returning with all three points after a 3-1 win.

Socrates Bakafoukas received a great pass from a move down the left side only to see his 19th minute shot go wide.

A minute later, however, the same player gave the visitors the lead after another left side attack, going on to get past the defence and score from close range.

The game was very keenly contested for the remainder of the first half and continued to the same pattern until the 71st when Eddie Briscoe smacked a sweetly timed volley past Matthew Baillie to put Stanmore 2-0 up.

Two minutes later Scott Mutton scored the best goal of the day with a scissors kick, reducing the lead to 2-1, but only five minutes later Briscoe had helped his side regain their two goal cushion by curling a free kick around the wall and in off the post.

Bathurst were disappointing and their day was typified by Adam Collins whose shot from right in front trickled wide in the last few minutes with a goal at his mercy. To compound matters Tony Clancy was sent off in the 80th minute for a late tackle on a day when nothing in first grade, at least, went right for Bathurst.

It was a big improvement by Stanmore who have been struggling for consistency so far this year and needed a win under their belts to launch another assault on the title this year.

ROUND SEVEN PREVIEW

There are some tasty treats in store for supporters this weekend when a number of venues are likely to offer a feast of good football.

Many of the games could be tight and we could see quite a number of draws this time around.

St George have found it hard to score at home this season but the visit of Dulwich Hill may provide some openings, if they can get things going up front. A likely home win is on the cards this time.

It could also be another home win for Rockdale who have had some tough games of late. The visit of the struggling Moorebank seems an ideal opportunity for them to pick up maximum points for once.

The game at Andrews Road between Penrith Panthers and Manly Warringah is one that could finish all square as neither is going to want to lose their unbeaten record and there are similarities in style.

Stanmore Hawks and Hurstville City Minotaurs is a game that holds great promise. Both teams are coming off wins and they do like to play an open style of football.

It may be high scoring game, but these Minotaurs might make life hard for the Hawks and an away win is quite possible at Arlington Oval.

The game at Andrews Road between Penrith Panthers and Manly Warringah is one that could finish all square as neither is going to want to lose their unbeaten record and there are similarities in style.

Auburn United and Bathurst, on the other hand, have a big difference in approach, but this game is also one that might wind up as a draw, maybe a goal apiece.

The prime choice for a shared points match is at Abruzzi Oval where A C United tackles Illawarra Lions who are getting better all the time. The AC team is another to improve steadily and it is unlikely that much will be given away by either side here as both want something from the game.

ROUND FOUR SUMMARY

Under the shadows of the sandstone buildings of St Paul's College the newly promoted Sydney University showed last Saturday why they were so awesome last year and why their leading marksman, Rob Smithies, has a reputation that precedes him.

Undaunted by a considerably scratchy start that saw visitors Hurstville ZSC grab a lead inside the first 2 minutes, the students began to put things together soon enough to draw level, going in at the break 2-1 up, but still to face a dressing room tirade from their fierce coach Jim Gallacher.

Smithies wound up with four of his side's five goals in the eventual 5-3 drubbing, but the highly effective striker could well have doubled that haul had things gone his way.

Steve Milicevic broke quickly on the left and surged past the last defender before beating Matt Craw with a confident finish to open Hurstville's account

When the heads went up for a high ball pumped into the box in the 13th minute, at the Hurstville end, danger looked minimal, but the last of several headers was by that man Smithies and his looping effort was too good for Tom Miletic who was in goal for the visitors.

Play was even for a while thereafter until a chip from wide on the right by Sam O'Connor, who had drawn the keeper out to guard his near post, sailed over the head of the custodian and into the roof of the net at the far post, Gordon Pitt having done much of the spade work.

Right from the second half kick off Hurstville were punished as Peter Vrlic dwelt on the ball long enough for Smithies to rob him and go on and score his side's third.

Smithies was then put through from deep in the 48th and was able to extend the lead again, but after heading another effort against the bar, Hurstville began to threaten once more.

First, after getting on the end of a Tom Prusac pass, Robert Babaic was denied by a late reflex save from Craw in the 65th, but then Babaic was able to hit a low shot past a diving keeper to make it 4-2 in the 72nd.

Bob Simunic had a header tipped over by Craw moments later, but Sydney Uni responded when Chris Bowman sent over a corner from the left which Smithies met at the near post with a glancing header into the far corner of the net.

Steve Zoric completed the visitors' scoring at the death with a good finish after another ball from deep by Prusac, but by then a third was not enough and the students wound up clear winners.

Mount Pritchard picked up three more useful points from their visit to Blick Oval, with a close fought game ending 2-1 in their favour.

Dominguez put Mounties in front in the 27th, but Sam Solidakis levelled at the hour mark for the home side and it wasn't until the 84th that Brett Smyth sealed it for the westerners.

Fraser Park raced to a three goal lead inside 13 minutes at home to Arncliffe Scots and held the strongfinishing side from the south to a single goal in the second half to collect all the points 3-1.

The skilful John Palapanis netted twice and a further goal a minute later by former Cliftonville, Northern Ireland, wingback Sean Strang put the home side in the box seat.

A strike by Steve Josevski midway through the second half gave Arncliffe a glimmer of hope but their pressure was not enough to allow them to break through for any further goals.

Mount Druitt did well to beat University of NSW who were fired up to get a result after a less than inspiring start to the season.

It was a game of missed chances, with some good football played by the locals for whom Steve Vanega, Byron Hardy, Myron Lewis and Craig Noble all had solid games.

Paul Graham scored the winner for Mount Druitt in the 48th minute after some good lead up work, but despite constant pressure the students offered stout resistance and went down fighting to the end.

Hajduk Wanderers toyed with Sydney District at Hajduk Stadium, rattling in nine without reply and getting eight different names on the scoresheet.

SUPER YOUTH LEAGUE

Round 7

Under 13's

Blacktown City Demons sit on to of the table despite drawing at Sutherland Sharks 1-1. Second placed Newcastle defeated Gladesville Hornsby 3-0 to make it 5 wins out of 6, while Parramatta Eagles are in third place after a 6-1 win over Southern Districts.

Wollongong are in fourth after their 3-0 victory over Manly Warringah Dolphins, while Leichhardt Tigers enjoyed the first of the two games in two days with a 5-0 victory over the Central Coast. If the Tigers were able to defeat Southern Districts on the Sunday it will have left them in second place.

Bottom club Eastern Suburbs went down 4-1 at Southern Branch, while after 4 draws in 6 games Macarthur Rams finally picked up all three points by defeating Sydney United 3-0.

Sydney Olympic started the day a point behind their hosts Marconi-Fairfield, but a 3-1 victory soon changed that.

Under 14's

Wollongong Wolves sit at the top of the table after 6 wins and a defeat in their 7 games, the latest being a 4-1 victory over Manly Warringah Dolphins.

The Wolves are looking over their shoulders however as Southern Districts defeated Parramatta Eagles 6-1 to make it 5 wins from 5, and they also had a re-arranged game with Leichhardt Tigers to play on the Sunday.

There was a number of 1-1 draws in Round 7, previous league leaders Sydney United being held by Macarthur, Sutherland Sharks being held by Blacktown City and Eastern Suburbs and Southern Branch sharing the spoils.

Newcastle Breakers suffered their second defeat of the season in going down 4-0 to Gladesville Hornsby, while the Central Coast remains bottom after a 4-2 defeat at Leichhardt.

Sydney Olympic went a point clear of Marconi Fairfield after their 3-1 victory at Marconi no 2

Under 15's

Marconi Fairfield made it seven wins out of seven with a 4-2 victory over Sydney Olympic. Gladesville Hornsby remain the other unbeaten team with a 1-0 victory over the Newcastle Breakers, while Blacktown City Demons remain in third with a 4-2 victory over Sutherland Sharks.

At the bottom Southern Branch remain pointless after losing 3-1 at home to Eastern Suburbs, while Central Coast took three points for the first time this season with a 2-1 win over Leichhardt Tigers.

Wollongong Wolves are in fourth place with a 2-0 victory over Manly Warringah Dolphins, and Southern Districts are just one place behind after a 1-0 victory over the Parramatta Eagles.

Sydney United were able to leap-frog over Macarthur, downing the Rams 3-0.

Under 16's

Sydney Olympic kept up their unbeaten run with a 2-0 win over Marconi Fairfield. The win puts them four points clear at the top ahead of three teams on 15 points.

The first of these, Newcastle Breakers, lost their 100% record to Gladesville Hornsby in going down 2-1, while Sydney United also missed the chance to go second, losing 3-2 at home to Macarthur Rams.

Parramatta eagles are in fifth after a 5-0 victory over Southern Districts, while Manly Warringah picked up their third win in six games by beating Wollongong Wolves 1-0. Blacktown have the same record after disposing of Sutherland Sharks 4-3, while Eastern Suburbs picked up their second win of the season by defeating Southern Branch 2-1.

It was even better for the Central Coast however, as they picked up their first win of the season against the Leichhardt Tigers, 2-0 at Lambert Park.

Division One Youth League - Round 6

Under 13's

Illawara Lions made it 6 out of 6 on the weekend, securing a 3-0 victory at home to AC United. The Lions now have an imposing goal difference of plus 29 after those 6 games.

St George also have a 100% record, but have played a game fewer. Like Illawara though they also picked up a 3-0 victory, this time over Stanmore Hawks.

Blacktown Association are in second place after after playing a game more than St George, although they were held to a 1-1 draw against Bankstown Association, the first time in 6 games they were unable to pick up all three points.

Ryde City are in fourth after a 1-0 victory over Canterbury Association, while biggest winners of the day were Penrith Panthers, who defeated the winless Fairfield Bulls 7-0.

In the days other game Hills United defeated Rockdale City Suns 2-0 to leapfrog their opponents on the table.

Under 14's

After just 6 games Ryde City enjoy a 7 point lead at the top of the table, Canterbury Association being their latest victims in a 2-0 victory.

Second placed AC United were held to a 0-0 draw with Illawara Lions, while St George slipped to third after losing at home to Stanmore Hawks.

In a day of close games the biggest winning margin was that of Penrith Panthers, who defeated Fairfield Bulls 3-0, while Hills United and Rockdale City Suns, two teams nearer the bottom of the table, shared the points in a 0-0 draw.

A win for Blacktown Association against Bankstown Association would have seen Blacktown in third spot, but the visitors from Bankstown took all three points, winning 2-1.

Under 15's

Penrith Panthers have a slim lead at the top of the table with a 5-0 victory over the Fairfield Bulls, although Hills United in second place also picked up all three points, defeating Rockdale City Suns 4-2.

Previous leaders Illawara Lions went down 1-0 to AC United, while Stanmore Hawks took all three points off St George with a 3-0 victory, in the process going above the Saints on the league table.

There was also a 3-0 victory for Ryde City against Canterbury Association, which gives the Gunners three wins and three defeats from their six games, while Bankstown Association moved into fourth spot with a 1-0 victory over Blacktown Association.

Under 16's

AC United and Illawara Lions both sit on 13 points after the latest matches, although AC United have played a game less.

It was fitting therefore that when the top two clashed at the BHP Sports Ground it should be a thriller, with points being shared in a 4-4 draw.

Ryde City could have moved within a point of both clubs but could only draw themselves, 1-1 away at Canterbury Association, while Rockdale City Suns picked up their second point of the season in drawing away at Hills United to the same score.

Blacktown Association are in third spot after a 1-0 victory over Bankstown Association, while Fairfield Bulls suffered their first defeat of the season, 5-0 at Penrith.

The days other game saw Stanmore Hawks defeat St George 4-2, a result which leaves Stanmore on 6 points after playing 5 games.

Division Two Youth League - Round 3

Under 13's

After three rounds there are only two teams still with a 100% record. One of those is Mt Druitt Town, who had a 9-0 victory over Parramatta City, while the other, Nepean Association, had a much closer game, winning 2-1 at home to Mt Pritchard.

Ku-Ring-Gai Association are third after their 6-0 win over Hawkesbury City, while Macquarie Sports were also big winners, this time with an 8-0 win over Granville Association.

After two draws Hajduk Wanderers picked up a 2-0 victory over Moorebank Sports, while in the days other game Camden Tigers also picked up a victory after two draws, beating CSI Schofields 3-2.

Under 14's

Hajduk Wanderers made it three wins out of three with a convincing 8-1 victory over Moorebank Sports, and now enjoy a three point lead over Hawkesbury City and Macquarie Sports.

Hawkesbury City secured three points with a 2-1 victory over the Ku-Ring-Gai Association, as did Macquarie Sports with their 4-0 victory over Granville Association.

The rest of the days games were tight affairs, Camden Tigers picking up their first point of the season in a 0-0 draw with CSI Schofields, while Parramatta City and Mt Druitt Town also shared the points in a 1-1 draw.

Mt Pritchard moved into fifth with a 1-0 victory over the Nepean Association.

Under 15's

As in the Under 14's Hajduk Wanderers are the only team with a 100% record, courtesy of a 4-3 victory over Moorebank Sports. Parramatta City dropped their first points of the season in a 1-1 draw at home to Mt Druitt Town. Mt Pritchard are third after their 6-2 victory over the Nepean Association, while Camden Tigers go fourth after a big win of the own, 7-1 at CSI Schofields.

The two other games were both settled 2-1, Macquarie Sports defeating Granville Association and the Ku-Ring-Gai-Association defeating Hawkesbury City.

Under 16's

There are two teams at the top of the table with three wins out of three - Nepean Association and the Camden Tigers. Nepean downed Mt Pritchard 4-0 and the Tigers also scored four in a 4-2 win at CSI Schofields.

Mt Druitt Town missed the chance to join those clubs in only drawing 2-2 at Parramatta City, while there were no such problems for the fourth placeHajduk Wanderers, who defeated Moorebank Sports 6-0 Hawkesbury City gained their first win of the season by defeating Ku-Ring-Gai Association 2-0, while Macquarie Sports were too good for Granville Association, winning 3-1.

Cadet League Division One review - Round 4

G11's.

Four games played, four won, 20 scored and none conceded is the remarkable record of Canterbury Marrickville's G11 side. Their latest victims were Bonnyrigg White Eagles, who had no answer as Canterbury Marrickville scored eight without reply.

St George are second on the ladder with three wins out of three, their latest victory being a 6-0 defeat of Eastern Suburbs. Marconi Fairfield is in third, a 2-0 home victory over Ryde giving them 6 points from a possible 9.

Leichhardt Tigers and Sydney United are in fourth and fifth respectively, with two wins from the two games they have played. Leichhardt Tigers sat out this week with a bye, while Sydney United proved too strong for Macarthur Rams, winning 2-0.

In the round's other game, a local derby between Parramatta Eagles and Parramatta City ended up in a 0-0 draw.

G12's.

St George's 6-1 over Eastern Suburbs sees them open a three point gap at the top of the table. Marconi Fairfield is hot on their heels however, and a 7-0 victory over Ryde proves they are ready for the Saints to slip up.

Sydney United's record is now played two and won two, as they downed Macarthur Rams 5-1 and are now in third place.

The Parramatta Eagles are into fourth spot after defeating Parramatta City 3-0, while Leichhardt Tigers sat out the week but are ready and waiting to add to their one game so far, a 4-1 victory.

Cadet League Division Two review - Round 6

G11's.

Two teams at the top have both played six games for 13 points. Illawara Lions are top courtesy of goal difference, although the Penrith Panthers held them to a 2-2 home draw. The other team at the top are Hills United, who picked up three points with a 2-1 home victory over Hawkesbury City.

AC United are third, just one point behind the leaders after a 2-1 victory over Mt Pritchard, while Stanmore Hawks did their goal difference no harm in beating Mt Druitt Town 13-0.

Moorebank Sports were unable to secure their first victory of the season, going down 2-0 to Hajduk Wanderes, while in the days other clash Hurstville City made it 3 wins out of 4 in defeating CSI Schofields' 5-1

G12's.

Stanmore Hawks' 1-0 victory over Mt Druitt Town sees them move two points clear at the top of the table, closely followed by a host of clubs on 12 and 13 points. The two clubs on 13 points, Penrith Panthers and Hills United both won, the Panthers 2-1 over Illawara Lions and Hills 3-0 over Hawkesbury.

AC United is in fourth after a convincing 7-1 victory over Mt Pritchard, while Hajduk Wanderers remain in mid-table after a victory over Moorebank Sports.

CSI Schofields' are the final team on twelve points, after collecting all three at Hurstville City with a 2-0 win.

After Tony Krslovic had netted the first inside ten minutes it became a procession, with six before the break including a brace from Damien Brown early in the second half.

Hills United had to abandon hopes of playing Greystanes when a downpour reduced their pitch to a virtual quagmire after the earlier Under 18 fixture. They also were due to meet Hurstville midweek at the same ground in a catch up game and that also looked in doubt.

FIFTH ROUND PREVIEW

Saturday's game between Fraser Park and University of NSW is likely to be a later kick off than the original 3 pm, due to work commitments and it is a game the students will be keen to get a result from after a slow start. New players are soon to be drafted in, especially the annual scholarship pair from University College Dublin who join them soon. Their turn may come in the second round.

Greystanes will have their hands full with Sydney University who have quickly picked up after a slow start and will be looking to add to their growing points tally at Bathurst Street Park. This could be a good, keen tussle and the Stanes cannot be written off. Perhaps a draw.

Hurstville must bounce back after the pounding from the students last week and will have a tough game to come home to against Mount Druitt whose work rate never lets them down. They may do enough to get the points, but it will be points well earned if they do.

Sydney District hope to get some more points when they face Mount Pritchard at Camdenville Oval, but even this may be a lot to ask at this early stage of their preparation. Another potential draw.

Arncliffe Scots have taken a while to hit their straps but should do enough to beat Belmore at Scots Field, while Hajduk Wanderers are going to be mighty hard for Hills United to stop at Hajduk Stadium.
